

“Community-based Research and Black Literate Lives in the Composition Class”

A Professional Development Workshop for Writing Instructors

By Visiting Scholar Beverly Moss

Co-author of the FSE’s 101 selected text Everyone’s an Author, Beverly Moss is an Associate Professor of English at Ohio State University.

Dr. Moss teaches Rhetoric, Composition, and Literacy, and her scholarship includes a focus on basic writing and literacy studies.

In addition to several articles published on these areas, she has authored several texts including, Literacy Across Communities and A Community Text Arises: A Literate Text and a Literacy Tradition in African American Churches and has co-edited Writing Groups Inside and Outside the Classroom.

The workshop will be held:

9:30-11:00 AM

Thursday, September 29th
Centennial Room in the Union

Refreshments will be provided courtesy of Norton Publishers

This event is sponsored by the First and Second Year English Program and Norton Publishers and is free and open to the public.